OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 18 July 1973

1. (Unclassified - JMM) Senator Symington, Acting Chairman, Senate Armed Services Committee, called me at 7:00 this morning to join him for breakfast in his Watergate apartment. Following a lengthy conversation there, I accompanied the Senator to his office where we met with Messrs. Braswell and Woolsey, of the Committee staff, for further discussions. See Memorandum for the Record.

2. (Confidential - JMM) [REDACTED] and I met with Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services Committee, and explained plans for [REDACTED] Nedzi asked several questions but raised no objections.

[REDACTED]

Nedzi asked about a reference by Mr. Butterfield in his appearance before the Ervin Committee indicating he had at one time been in liaison contact with the Agency. I called [REDACTED] Security, who explained that Butterfield's office had been the point of contact for Agency people who needed White House passes to attend meetings etc., and I so informed Nedzi. This seemed to satisfy him.
